One of the happiest times of our lives is the time we spend in high school. Abounding with custom and tradition, high school is a time when we begin to shrug off the notions and selfishness of childhood, but at the same time spend what remains of it in happy, silly pursuits. High school is a time for reflections, for resolutions, for making new friends and saying goodbye to old ones, for craziness and fun.

High school is a time to live.

Samuell Spartans take this idea seriously. We live our school lives to the brim with dances, football games, activities, and even academics. Life at Samuell is important to the Spartans, because they realize it plays an important part in their lives as a whole.

Life is a precious thing to all of us. We cling to it stubbornly, almost fanatically at times. We sometimes ignore our own mortality, and waste the time we have to live. A human life is too short a time to experience the ways of the world and universe, but we should live life to the fullest and experience what we can.

We now stand on the threshold of a new decade. Many of us are about to enter adulthood, so we begin two phases simultaneously. We are about to discover for ourselves the many mysteries and the heartbreaking troubles that life holds. But whatever happens, our lives are irrevocably shaped in some fashion by our years in high school. We will remember Samuell — all our lives.

> This day is life, the very life of life. If you live your todays well, your yesterdays will be a memory of joy, and your tomorrows a vision of hope.

Students at Samuell seem to spend most of their high school lives wrapped up in one activity or another. Shows, dances, parades, assemblies — all these aspects of student life and others pervade the school year. Life at Samuell proves not only to be an academic experience, but a source of social togetherness and unity as well.

All School Play

The Korean War, in all its terror, weariness, and hilarity, was brought into the Samuell auditorium briefly on the nights of December 7th and 8th when the 1979-80 Samuell Thespians presented the play *M*A*S*H*, by Tim Kelly, based on the book by Richard Hooker. The cast and crew worked for over two months to bring the production to life, and they succeeded admirably.

The story in *M*A*S*H* concerns two Army doctors, Hawkeye Pierce and Duke Forrest, who are assigned to the 4077th MASH in South Korea. When they arrive, all hell breaks loose. They drive a boorish doctor crazy, send a Korean peasant to college in America, cause a psychiatrist to have a breakdown, and have a series of other merry adventures.

The show was directed by Mr. Jeff Morrow, who just took over management of the Thespians for the 1979-80 school year. The show went well both nights.

50's Day

1980 has been a year of many new Samuell traditions. 50's Day was held on Friday May 16th. Samuell students with ponytails and greasy hair wore rolled up jeans, poodleskirts and bobbie socks. A sock hop was held in the girl's gym, where students twisted to the rock-n-roll beat of the 50's. A pep assembly, vintage 1950, rocked and rolled in the auditorium.

50's Day was started this year by the Student Council for the entire student body in honor of the senior class.

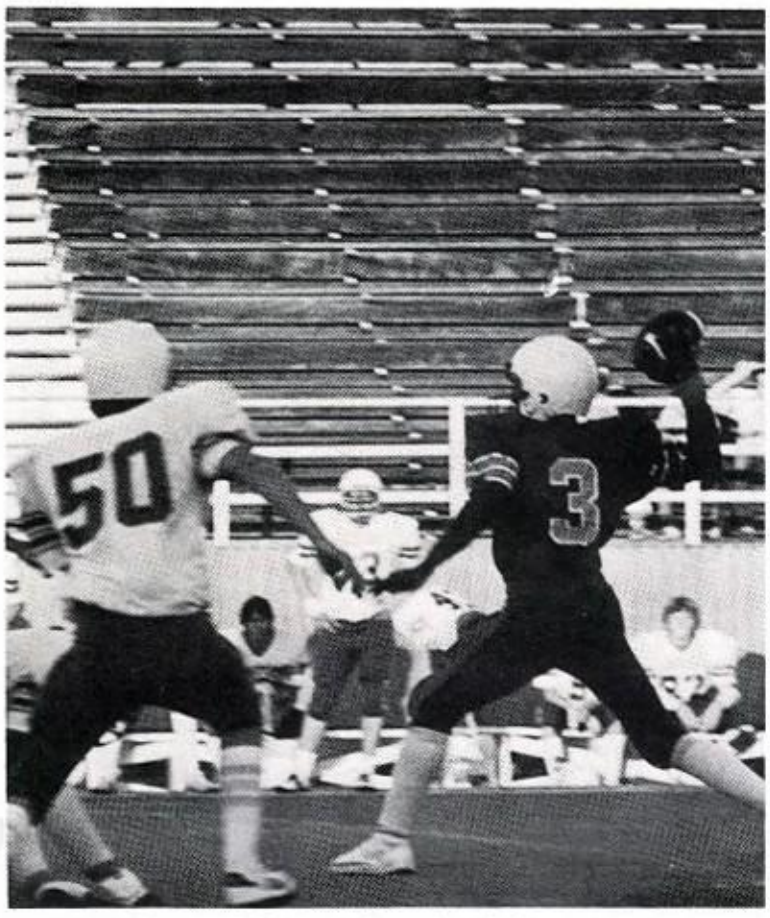
— The End of a New Year

The traditional Blue/Gold game is the last one for many students. The new Banner Team and Spartan Image are announced, the new football team, drill and cheerleaders perform, and students about to graduate scream their lungs out for the teams one last time as students. This year, for the first time, senior athletes were recognized by Mr. Stokes at halftime.

The 79-80 cheerleaders perform on the field one last time.

These senior girls don't appear to be too interested in the game.

The drummers took up a whole side of the stadium to do "We've got spirit."



Vincent Thomas drops back for a pass.

The new cheerleaders show their stuff.

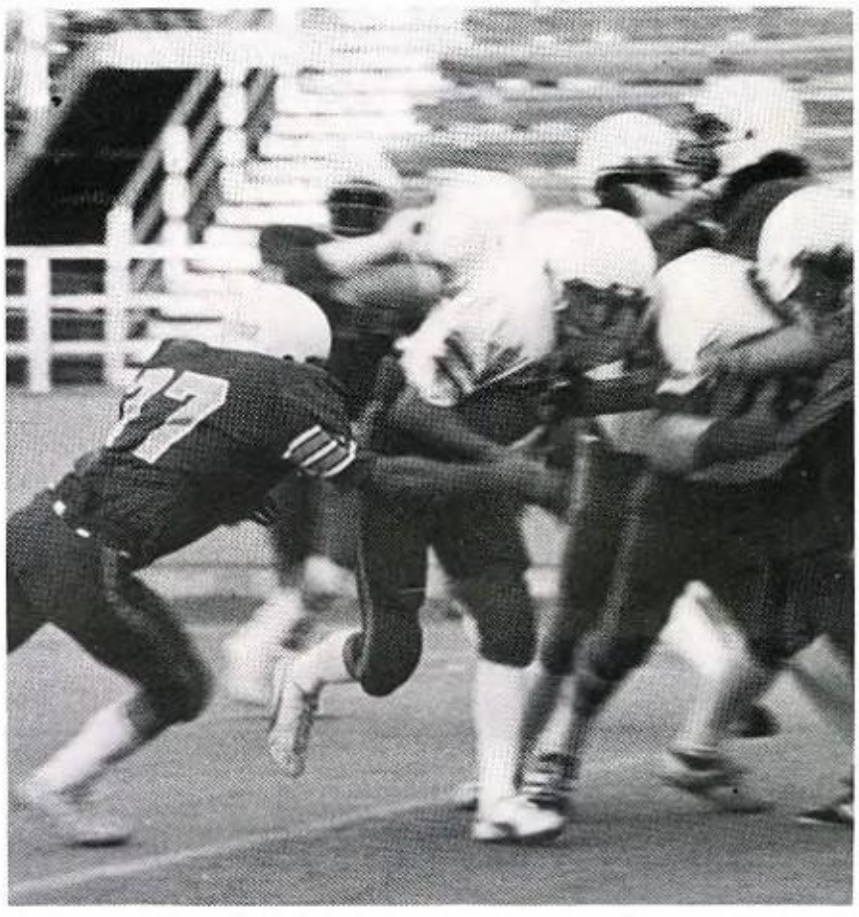
Nothing can stop the seniors from their harmless and traditional "run across the field."

The senior drill performed a cut from "All That Jazz" for their last routine.

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT — HOW 'BOUT YOU?

Paula Bledsoe gets held up by a "bad guy" — Laurie Johnson.

Alan Cross trots to his position at center field as senior athletes are recognized at halftime.



Football is definitely a contact sport!!

A typical Samuell Spartan spends much of his life in high school participating in activities sponsored by one organization or another. Organizations and clubs not only afford an opportunity to expand the student's field of interest, but provide a chance to share ideas or just to socialize. Organizations play a significant part in the "life" of Samuell students.

The 79-80 Blue Jackets

The Blue Jackets are Samuell's pep squad. The 1979-80 school year was the first time in four years that Blue Jackets were given credit for being a P.E. class. The members met for two weeks before school began to work on orientation. The club attended athletic events such as football and basketball games. They did cheers, made posters, and gave surprises to the athletes (tags, cakes, goodies, etc.) during the pep assemblies. The group took part in hall decorations for Homecoming and Christmas. While at the games they did cheers with the Varsity and performed their famous card show. The club's banquet was held at Spaghetti Warehouse in March.

W. W. Samuell Band

The Samuell Band of 1979-80 was smaller than usual, but "quality is better than quantity," says drum major Chuck Hesson. The Flag Corps were a bigger success than the previous year, and provided a nice complement to the band's appearance. The band sponsored the Music On Stage show on Feb. 22 and 23 and participated in the SMU Homecoming Parade in November.

No qualifications are necessary for membership in the band, just interest in music.

Student

The Samuell student council is an integral part of many school affairs. They sponsored the Howdy Dance, and the Homecoming Dance. The council also adopted grannies at the Fairhaven Nursing Home, and held parties for them periodically. They held the District III Spring Convention at Samuell on March 3 for other schools' student councils in the area.

The student council sold Spartagrams in the lunchroom over the Valentine holidays. They printed a Newsletter each month and sponsored dress-up day.

The Christmas Hall Decorating Contest, in which many clubs participated, was also sponsored by the council. The Spartan of the week was chosen and recognized by the council. They obtained the new lunchroom for the exclusive use of the Seniors and the juke box.

At the first of the year, a student council-sponsored assembly was held to acquaint the freshmen and other new students with school organizations.

The NHS is one of the most prestigious organizations of any school, because membership is not open to all students. Members in the NHS must have made an outstanding record for themselves in school. Teachers rate prospective members each year, so a student's induction into the Society is the highest honor the faculty can bestow upon its students.

PUB STAFF Non-stop Seniors

The Senior humor publication's assimilation is no easy job. The members of the Pub Staff have to use much of their own time to gather the data and quotes needed. They have to meet after and before school to assemble their information and make crucial decisions. The theme of the pub, which is sponsored by Ms. Adams, Ms. Hanys, Ms. Albright, and Ms. Braden, is "Ain't No Stoppin Us Now."

TORCH STAFF

The TORCH Staff is an elite group of super-specialists who endeavor with great labor and strain to produce a book that is highly superior and praiseworthy among its kind. Otherwise known as "The Out To Lunch Bunch," the staff consists of fifteen dedicated paragons of journalistic virtue and Ms. McCollum, who devote their sixth period, nighttime hours and weekends, to putting together a superb collection of pictures, copy, headlines, and captions which captivate and fascinate the reader, and who are forced to tolerate many trials of sanity (i.e. deadlines, faulty pics, shortage of pens, Darryl Jordan's jokes, Steve Cain, and BUFF COLLINS).

Presented here is a record of these laudable, dedicated persons who have worked long months and spent many a grueling hour out to lunch to bring you the book which now rests in your hands.

Sports are a major part of "life" at Samuell.

Athletics play an important part in the development of the individual and the student body. The athletes participate for physical reasons or just for fun. The spectators come to the games to watch their team and cheer them on. Whatever the reason, everyone involved with sports realizes the significance the tradition has in high school life.

The 79-80 version of varsity basketball proved to be a very exciting experience. The Spartans finished the season seeded in fourth place of the 11-AAAA district standings, but not until they made an all out effort for the title crown. The highlight of the season came in the first game, when Samuell showed a tremendous amount of talent in tarnishing the otherwise perfect record of the district champion Lincoln Tigers.

The W.W. Samuell soccer team is a young team, but it has great potential. Most of the players are freshmen and sophomores. We only had one senior player and five returning starters from the previous season.

The team record to date with one remaining game is 1-6. This won-lost record doesn't look good in black and white, but it doesn't tell the exact truth about the skills, talent and performances of the players. In the upcoming season there will be great improvement in the win column.

Girl's Soccer

The girls' Soccer team, with the help of Coach Martinez, has really done well this year. They made the Spartans a winning team by finishing the season with a 4-4 district record. The girls dedicated a lot of time to make it what it is.

The teachers at Samuell are a dedicated team of professionals who devote their lives to imparting knowledge to their students. A teacher at Samuell can be a friend or can be a mysterious, austere personality who demands constant respect.

The academic aspect of life at Samuell requires work and is most important, although few students would admit it. It does help prepare each individual for college or a career. Hours spent on homework, special projects and field trips deduct a great deal of time from the Samuell student's waking life and prepare him for the future.

In Dedication

Ms. Reba Cost has been at Samuell for three years. During that time, she has managed to do her job successfully and, at the same time, to help students in just about any way she can.

She received a bachelor's degree in Home Economics Education from Oklahoma State University, and taught Home Ec at Fred F. Florence for three years. She then earned a master's degree in school administration from N.T.S.U. and came to Samuell to assume her present role as assistant principal.

A "wild and crazy" lady, her sense of humor endears her to many. She spends many of her professional hours helping to make student activities a success. Much of her time during the 1979-80 year was devoted to working on Senior activities, and it is partially for this, but for many other reasons too, that the Class of 1980 gratefully dedicates the 1980 TORCH to Ms. Reba Cost.

Ms. Cost is surprised at the dedication announcement.

Ms. Cost thanks the Senior Class and TORCH Staff for her honor.

P.T.A. President — Pat Stewart

R. C. Stokes — Principal

1979-80 has been one of the most outstanding and successful years that W.W. Samuell has ever experienced. The 1980 seniors have been an outstanding Senior Class and have maintained a leadership position which will be difficult for all classes to achieve. Congratulations to you at this time when you complete your twelve years of education. This year we have seen problems and disappointments, but the accomplishments have been so many that we have forgotten all of the unpleasant things that have happened. This year's class at W.W. Samuell has set such high standards that those of us who are returning next year must work extra hard to live up to the example you have set. We wish for each senior of 1980 the best of everything in the future and we will continually pray for God's blessings upon you. We ask you to remember all of the Spartans who will follow after you and keep them in your prayers.

Freshman Class Officers: Treasurer — Susan Self, Vice Pres. — Lorri Fowler, Pres. — Pete Wackett, Sec. — Lori Wheeler.

Freshman Class Favorites:
Margaret Pineda and Ronnie Ramsey

The Freshman Class of 1979-80, despite its novitiate experiences with the school, distin guished itself through active participation in Samuell happenings. Blue Jackets, Freshma Football, and other organizations benefited from the inclusion of freshmen in their ranks Despite all the ribbing the class of '83 received from the upperclassmen, some of those upper classmen had a long way to go before they could catch up with their freshman victims.

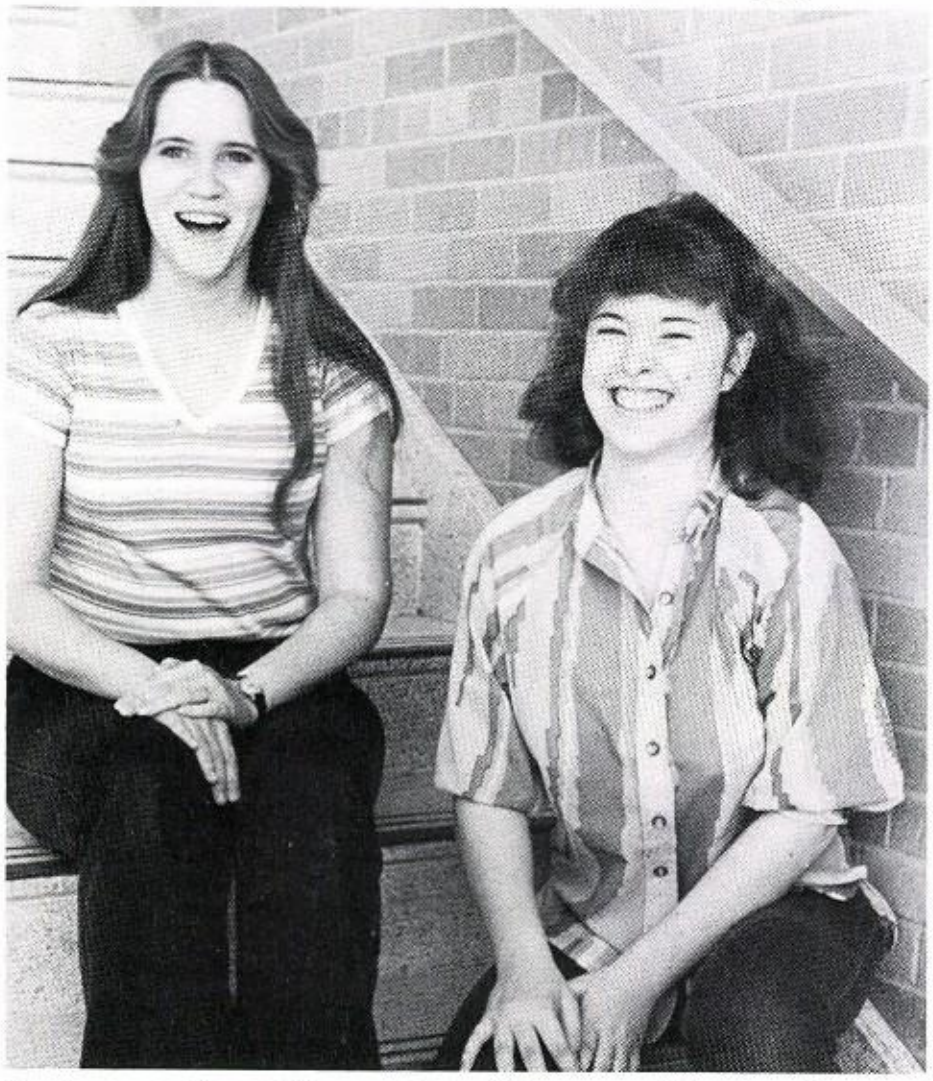
Class of 1982
"Pushing on Through!"



Sophomore Class Officers: Becky Thomas — Vice-President and Nancy Dreer — Secretary.

Dana Woodfin and Ralph Ramsey

The Sophomores affectionately known as "second-year freshmen" to some, were long lowest class at Samuell, until the ninth graders came along and reprieved them from this du ous distinction. Now the "middle children," they must work harder than ever to save the selves from obscurity. And during 1979-80, the sophomores did just that, entrenching the selves firmly in the life of Samuell.

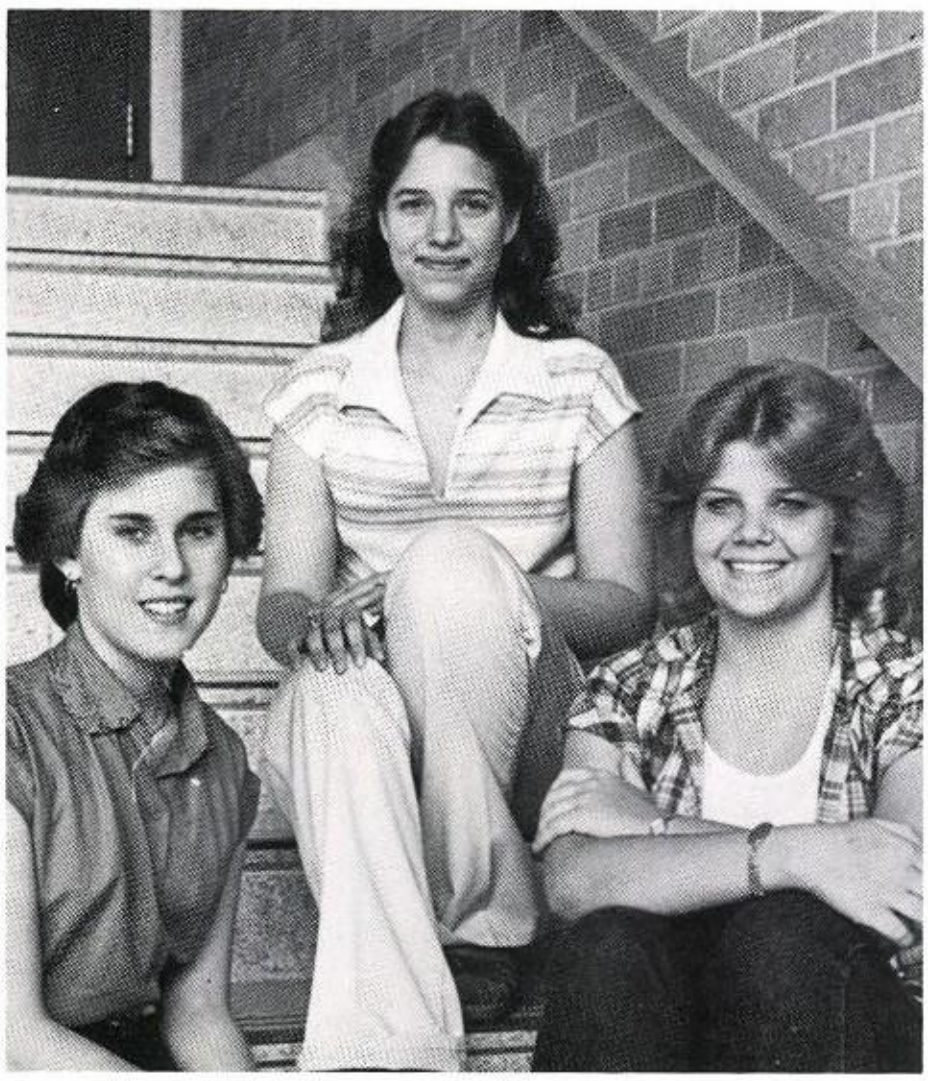
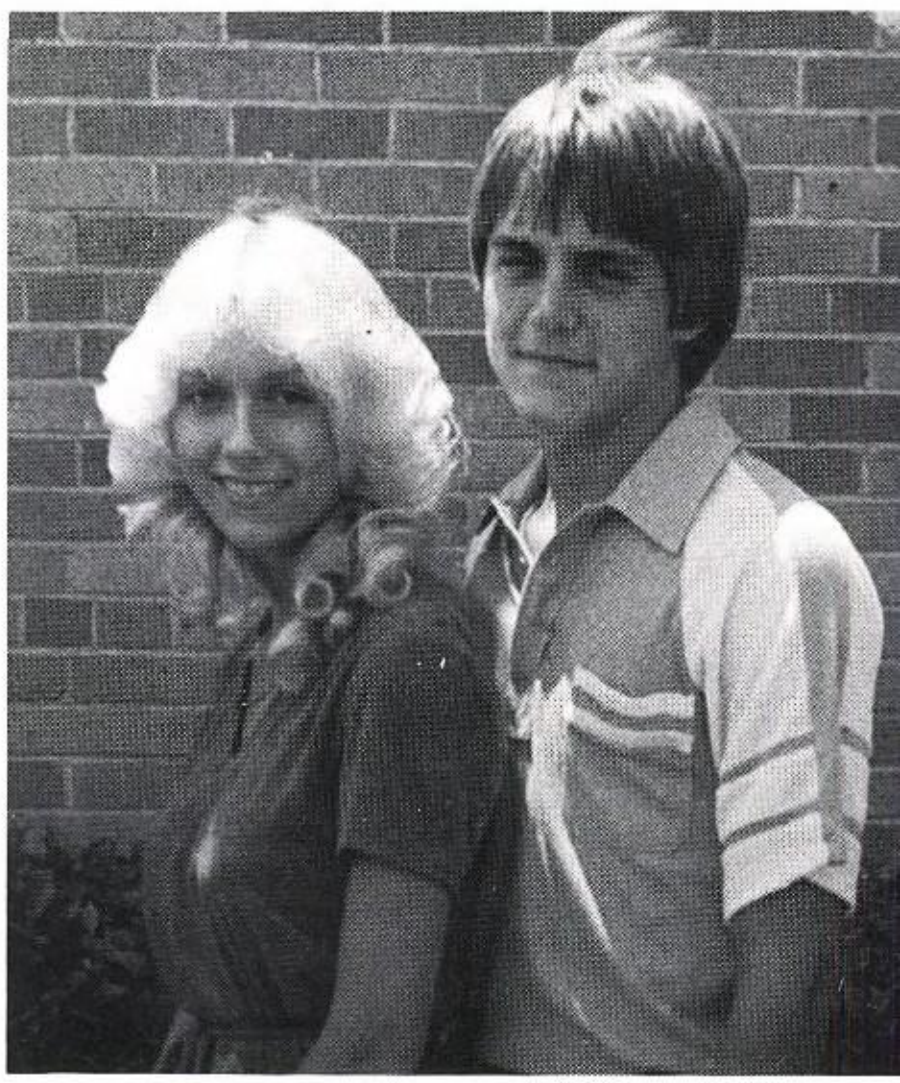
Class of 1981
"Soon to be #1"



Junior Class Officers: Melanie Walker — Vice-President, Zena Ruzicka — Secretary, Roxanne Young — President.



Junior Class Favorites:
Robin Brantley and Clint Lawson

The Class of '81 was an exceptional underclass group this year. The Juniors distinguished themselves by accomplishments in athletic, academic, dramatic and other extracurricular endeavors. This class really pulled itself out of "middle child" status and made everyone realize that the Seniors of 1981 will be a class to remember.

W. W. SAMUELL SENIORS '80

Senior life is busy, exciting, fun, sometimes boring, expensive, sad and superior to all other forms of life at Samuell. Being a senior is an event looked forward to for years and cherished when it finally comes. Seniors get and deserve many special privileges, though the number diminishes yearly. Seniors have worked for eleven years to attain their present position and take their superiority seriously.

The senior year is also a time for sadness and reflection. In retrospect, seniors spend their school years not knowing that some day they will hold those very years precious and regret leaving them. But they also look ahead to a hopefully brighter future, which they have been at least partially prepared for.

Class of 1980
"This Is It!"

Senior Class Officers: David Dunagan — Vice-President and Greg Money — Pre dent.

The Seniors have proven to be an especially superb class this year. They have shown them selves to be a trend-setting, fun-loving and yet an intelligent class. The 1980 Seniors have ha numerous outstanding accomplishments while at Samuell. These include establishing (at las a successful senior lunchroom, initiating a new club, having a 50's Day, and actually holding 50's assembly in which the students participated. These Seniors were not only innovators new customs; they shall be remembered differently also — with a smile on their faces, and pat on your back — with a sign!

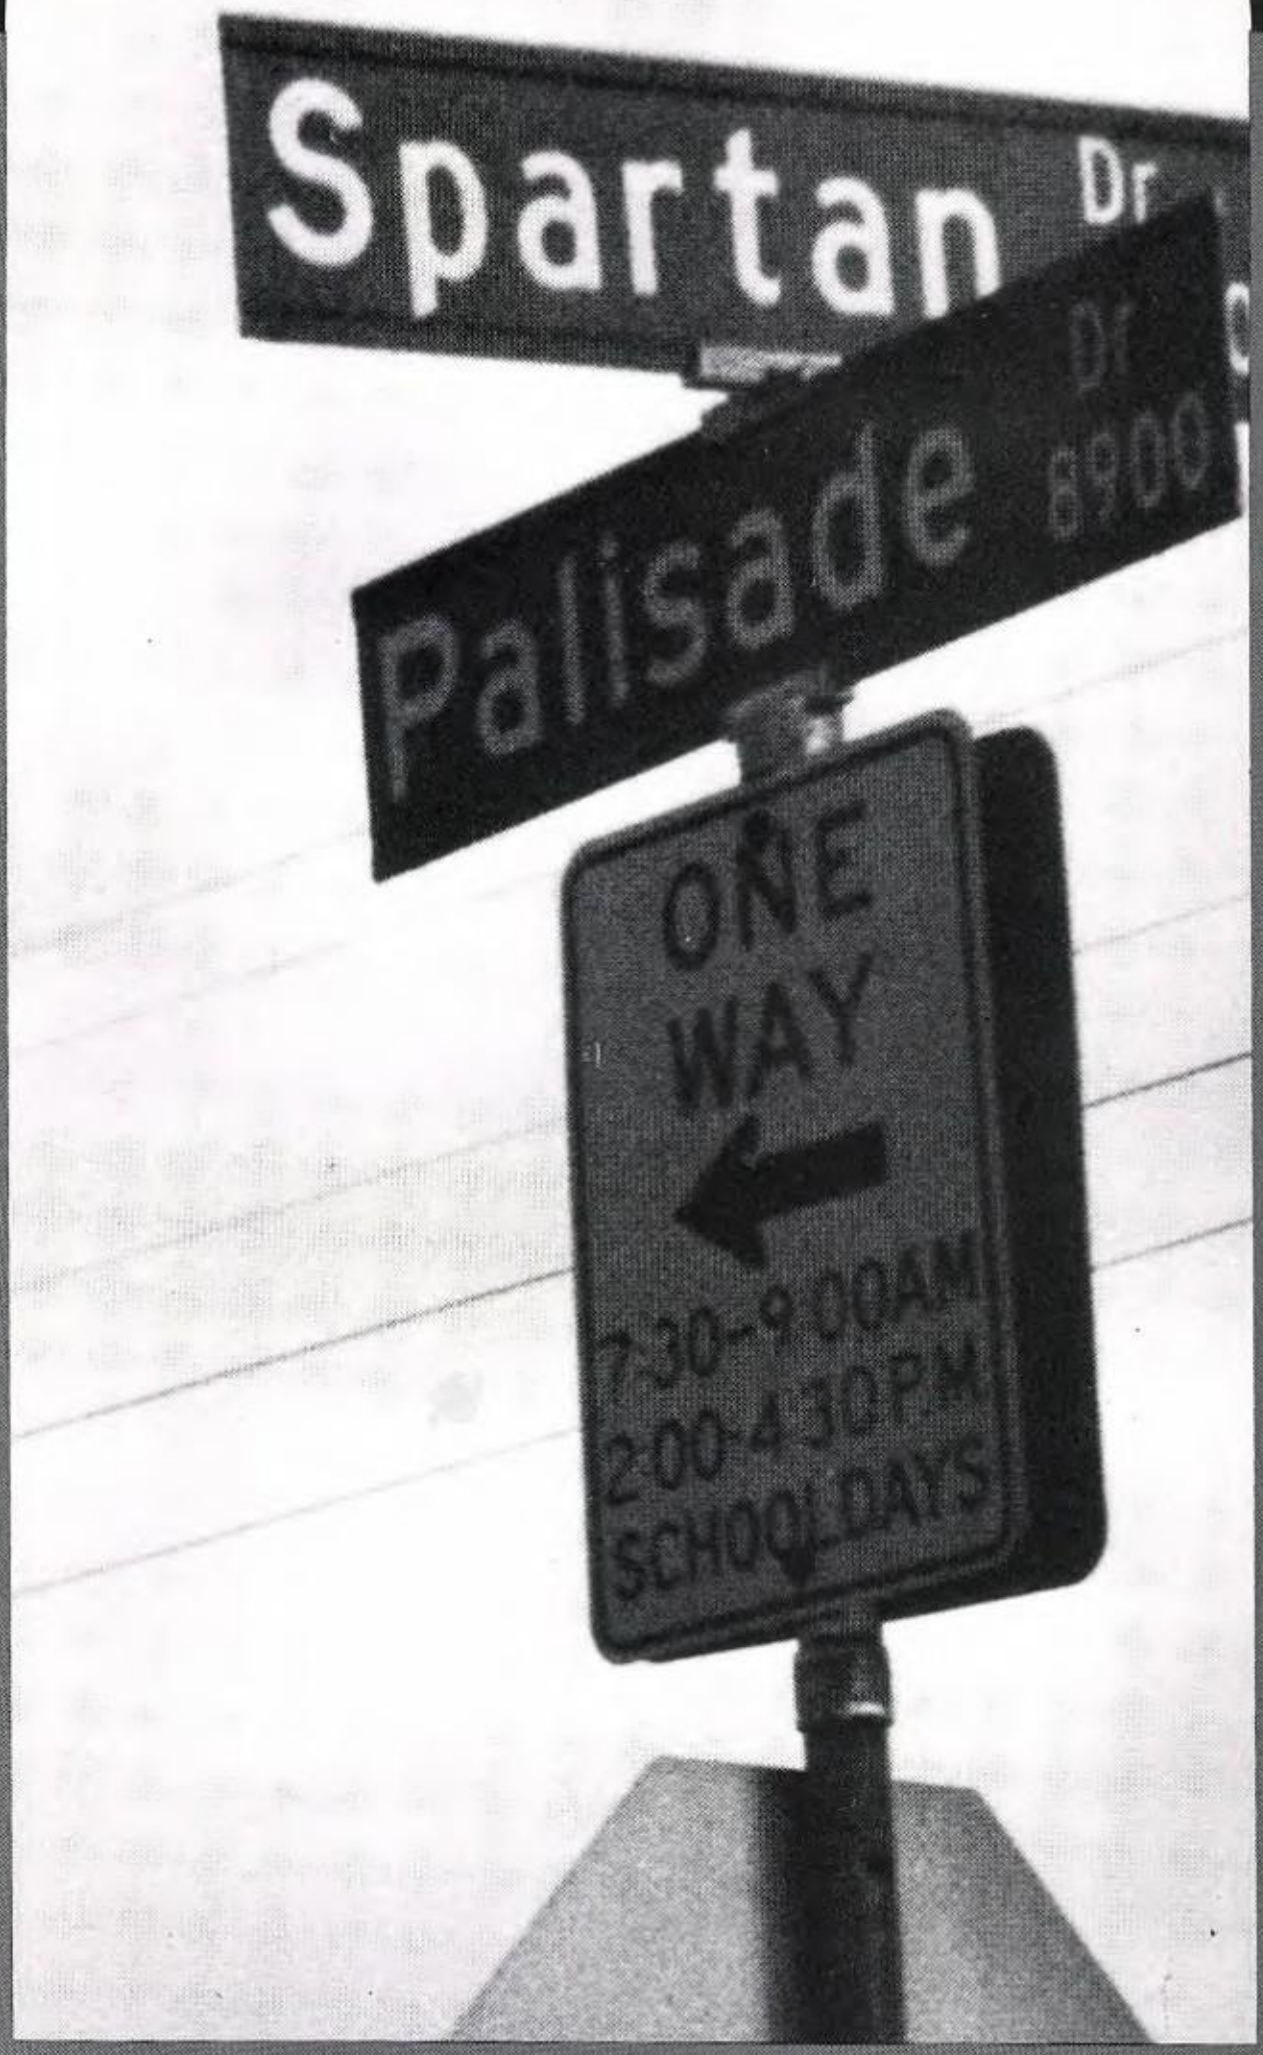
Pleasant Grove inspires in its residents a spirit of togetherness and community-mindedness. The people who live in Pleasant Grove know of the friendliness, of the inner beauty, of the bonding spirit that unites Pleasant Grove into one neighborhood. Community life is important to the Spartans, for they spend much of their free time in their neighborhood. Pleasant Grove will continue to be an instrumental part of Samuell and Samuell will continue to be an instrumental part of Pleasant Grove.



LIFE®

With Pleasant Grove

"The Pit?"

In Southeast Dallas there exists a community which its inhabitants are fond of referring to as "Pleasant Grove, Texas." The people of the Grove are very proud of their neighborhood, and rumors of its tackiness do not bother them a tad — in fact, they delight in calling themselves "Grove Rats." Other Dallasites may see fit to refer to the area as "Peasant Grove" or "The Pit," but they run the risk of massive retaliation by the indignant Rats if they are dim enough to mutter such scurrilities within the confines of the Grove.

Photographer Susan Thomas loads her camera before she sets out to investigate the "Grove".

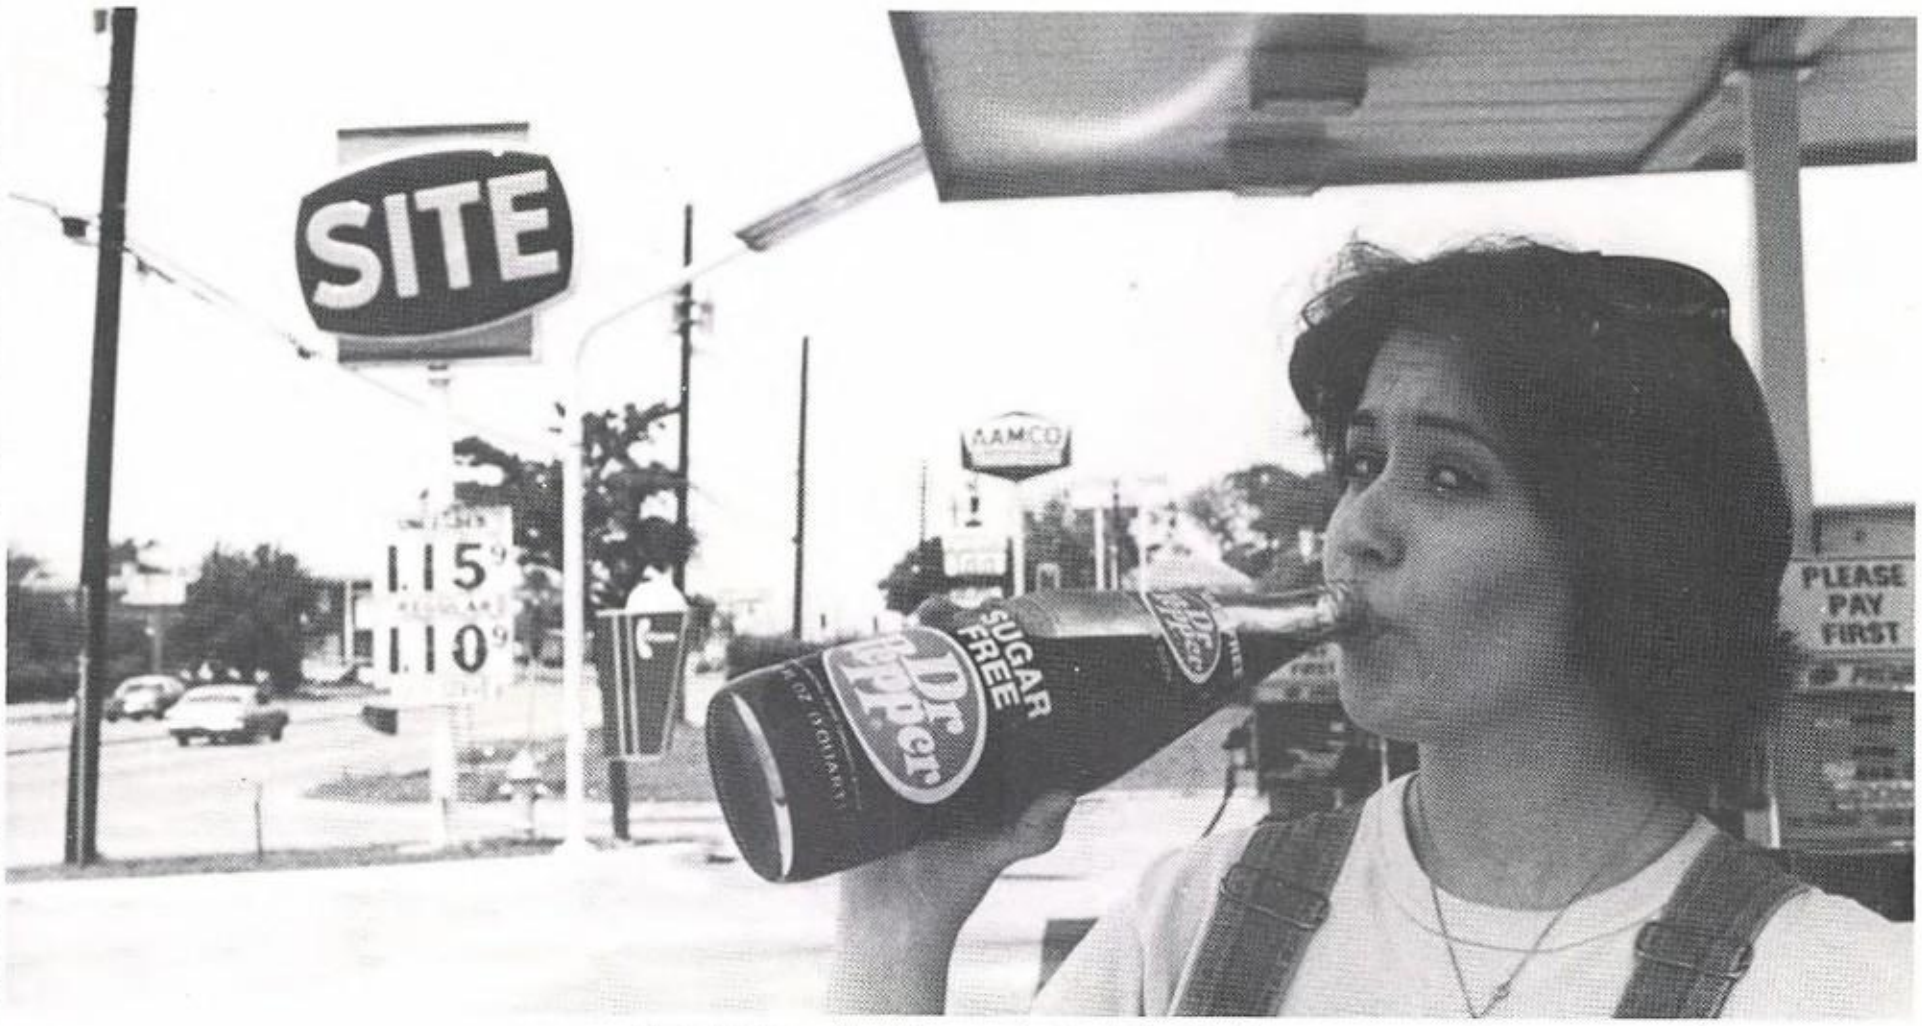
Kevin Bailey trucks around Pleasant Grove.

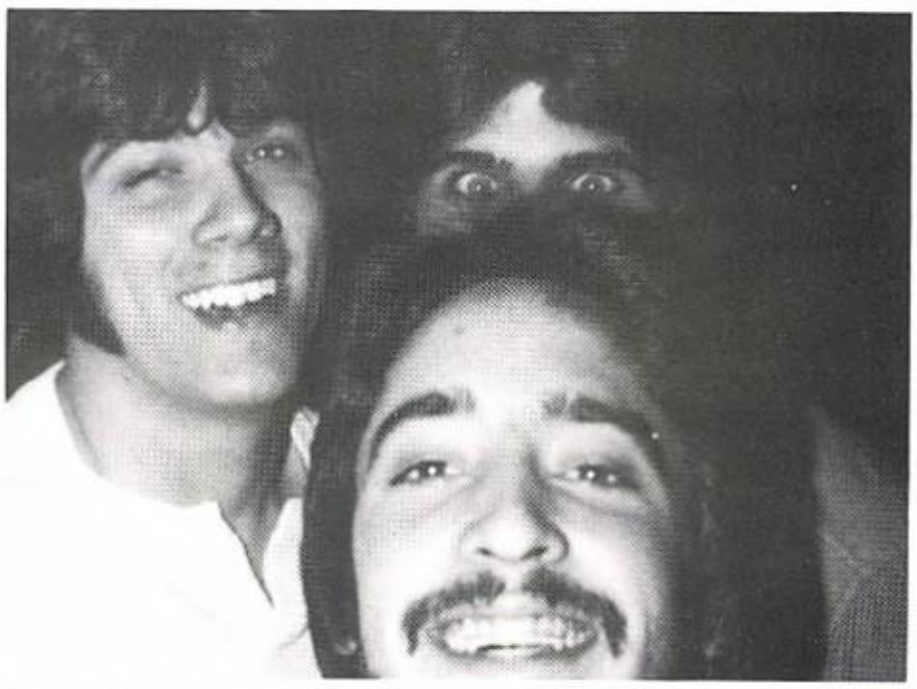
Mike Collins gets in some sack time.



Cathy Todora "fuels" up at the local Site Station.

Brett Paschall checks out the merchandise in the "Grove" shopping center.

Robert Callen "fries 'em up" at Braum's.



Robbie Harris, Kevin McKinney, and Curt Fryar are true "Grove Rats."

Jack Caddell and Kevin McKinney behind bars in "The Grove."

Mrs. Walker and Mark stock up on groceries for the summer.

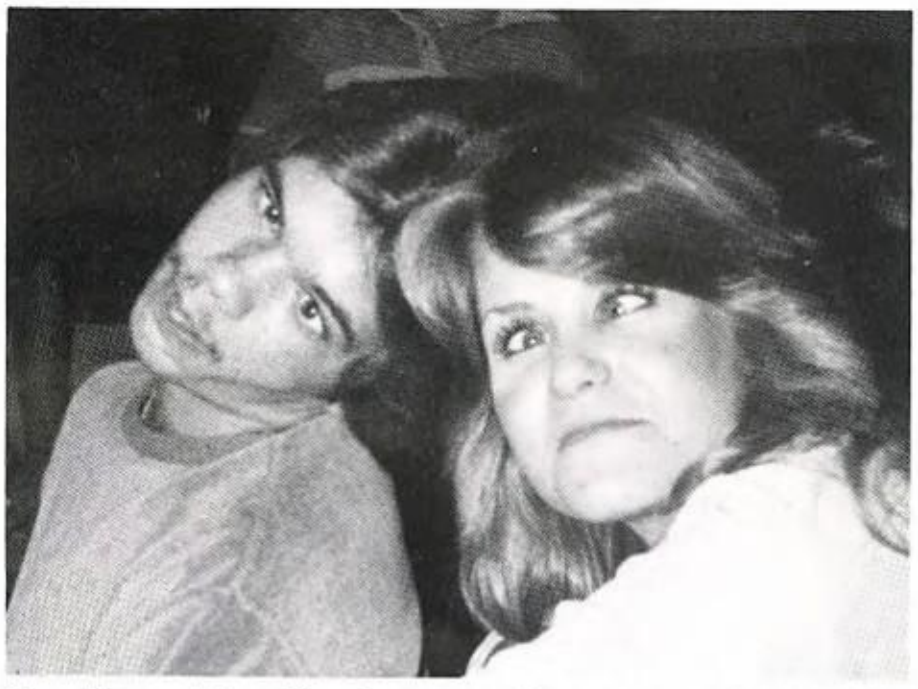
Velma Jacobs gets ready for the sun with some new shades.

David Dixon, Greg Pattillo and Chris Cole talk to the animals.

"Young Life" meets in the "Grove."

"Grovites" always turn out to support the Spartans.



Tony Key and Jana Chambers prove that working on the TORCH will drive you crazy!!!

Our lives progress in stages that sometimes flash by with dazzling rapidity. As we progress, we sometimes look back on past times with nostalgic longing, and look forward to stages yet to come with eager anticipation.

The 1980 Torch has tried to record as accurately as possible the essence of life at Samuell. With the closing of this door, a new one opens.

Marla, I know we wasn't very close last year (79-80) but we both had our separate ways. I hope this year we can be closer. I'll try to make it a better year. And I know you will, so I guess everything going to work out just great. I hope that you will have a great year, and even a greater year next year. I wish you lots of luck in the future. And may God be with you always. Your friend always.

Love

Brenda Mabary

Marla,
I'm glad we got a chance to talk
good this year and I hope
good luck
